Progress Already Made With Plans Under Way For Skating Rink

The skating rink project, sponsored by the Northfield Brotherhood, for the benefit of the young people of the community and any others who might wish to use it, is getting away to a fine start. In three days $236.00 has been collected toward a goal of $500.00. This undertaking in the interest of the young people has met with a spontaneous enthusiasm which should assure its success. Those who have been contacted to date have been very generous in their donations and their interest very encouraging.

At a meeting of the committee on Tuesday evening, plans were gone over and the different phases of the work laid out as follows: Charles Johnson and Ross Spencer will have charge of raising the funds; John Callaghan will supervise the construction of the rink under Warner Bros. & Goodwin; Edward Bolton and Leavis & Bolton will have charge of constructing a suitable cabin; Roy Hatch and Alfred Holton will have charge of the wiring and lights.

If you haven't been contacted for a donation yet, don't wait—see Charles Johnson or Ross Spencer. You will want to have a part in this fine undertaking.

Congregational Church

Services on Sunday and events of the week are as follows: On Sunday at 10 o'clock: Sunday school for all grades and ages; 11, morning worship, sermon by Mr. Dahl: "A Man Sent from God." This is the first in a series of sermons for the Advent season; 3, Sunday school in schoolhouse No. 4, Northfield Farms. Dr. Edward Fairbank will be a guest and will speak on India. Mr. Niels E. Nielsen will be in charge; 6:30, Christian Endeavor meeting. A hymn singing and musical program will be conducted by members of the group.

Monday at 7 p. m., Boy Scouts. Tuesday at 9 a. m., Mr. Dahl will conduct devotions over station WHAL. Music by the choir.

Wednesday at 3, the Women's Missionary Society will meet at the home of Mrs. William Marshall on Highland avenue. A lesson in South America geography will be conducted by Miss Elizabeth Braly.

Thursday at 10 a. m., meeting of the Sewing Society; 5:45, the teachers and officers of the Sunday school will meet for supper in the vestry. Mr. Currier will continue his talks on teaching; 7:30, service of fellowship and prayer; 8:30, choir rehearsal.

Train Had Accident

The early morning south bound train on the Boston and Maine railroad, which had passed through East Northfield enroute White River to Springfield, met with a mishap near Mount Tom last Friday morning about 7:30 o'clock. A portion of the train was derailed and about 900 feet of track torn up when a connecting rod on the engine broke. Both tracks were blocked and a delay ensued in northbound trains so that the early morning mail to our Postoffice did not reach here until about 1 o'clock. Except for slight bruises of a few of the passengers in the rear car, no one was injured.

Are You Prepared Blackout Test Coming Change In Signals

Region tests throughout New England are being planned and they have already been scheduled for Massachusetts. Accordingly our citizens may expect a "blackout" test soon. According to Maj. Gen. Needham the Pittsfield area will have one and also the Springfield area the first of next week. It will also be important that every citizen understands the new signals which will be used for the first time hereabouts.

There will be three signals given, by whistles or bells. The first whistle is a warning that a "blackout" is effective, then comes a second whistle, which means that the "blackout" is on and on this alarm all lights must go out and remain out, until the third whistle is heard, which signifies that all is clear. Briefly—here it is:

First whistle, warning second whistle, lights out third whistle, all clear and lights on. All traffic stops on second whistle. All units of Civilian Defense will be called upon to participate.

Becomes Photo Editor

Although the Press is endeavoring to limit its weekly edition to four pages for the "duration", its showing of pictorials has been generous and the subjects of prime importance to its local readers. It is expected that this photo material will be further improved as it will be edited by Frank W. Pearsall, head of the publicity department of the Northfield schools, who last August was named to the post of responsibility by the publisher and who now assumes the task. The cost of making cuts by engravers for publication has gone up and are limited owing to the needs of the government for the materials used in their making. Very shortly the publisher of the Press will announce the Editorial Council for next year, and which will include the names of capable and responsive individuals in this community.

Inaugurates Canvass

In Greenfield there is to be a united financial canvass of all Protestant Churches and the Hebrew congregation, at the same time, each independent of the other. The campaign will be inaugurated at a dinner at the Methodist Church on Thursday evening, December 3rd, when Dr. William E. Park of the Northfield schools will deliver the address. It is expected that there will be a large attendance of the workers. The solicitation will be on Sunday, December 6th.

In Probate Court

The following action was recorded in Probate Court last week before Judge Francis Nims Thompson on cases of local interest: Administration was granted on the estate of the late George E. McGowan with Maurice J. Levy of Greenfield as executor; the will was allowed of the late Mrs. Nellie M. Wood, with Robert L. Wood of San Gabriel, Calif., as executor; license was granted for the sale of real estate of the late William T. Pi-gott.

All special events of the Christmas season will be chronicled in the Press if information is immediately received by the editor of the Press, giving day, time, place and event. This applies to all churches and organizations. Be brief in a description. The first of such information will appear next week.

The Christmas Sale At Green Pastures

Don't forget the Christmas sale on Saturday, December 5th, beginning at 9 a. m., and continuing through the day at Green Pastures, the home of Mr. Pitt and Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Powell. The proceeds of the sale will go toward the fund used to provide the money orders and Christmas cards which have gone to our town boys in the various services.

Many articles will be offered for sale, including a sewing machine, books, clothing, and decorations for the Christmas season. A large number of friends from Mount Hermon and from the Farms expect to attend and their example of bringing a carload of folks should inspire others to do likewise. Don't fail to call at Green Pastures any time Saturday, December 5.

For Russian Relief

A plea for Russian Relief is in prospect here and should be given a hearty support. With the approach of winter in Russia, its people will require warm clothing, underwear, scarfs, mittens, blankets, good clothing, stockings. Anything that is in good condition and that is usable will be appreciated. Mrs. C. C. Compton of 124 Main street has kindly consented to receive such materials at her home and they will be packed and shipped to New York, from whence they will be carried overseas on ships with "lend-lease" goods. Let us not overlook this important and necessary charity. The Russian people are doing a wonderful job in helping to win this war and crush Hitlerism.

Entertained Service Men

Last Sunday, 11 members of the M. P. Company occupying the Northfield camp, came to Northfield upon invitation and were entertained for dinner in the homes of Rev. and Mrs. Edward Fairbank, Capt. and Mrs. William Marshall, Mrs. William R. Moody, Mr. and Mrs. Ambert G. Moody, Mr. and Mrs. George McKwan, and Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Powell. The men also attended the service at the Congregational Church in the morning.

On Wednesday evening the Social Service Committee, of which S. E. Walker is chairman, visited the camp and gave a presentation of moving pictures and the plans call for a visitation and showing at the camp every Wednesday evening. On the evening of December 9th, members of the Youth Hostel will furnish colored travel and sports pictures. On alternating Wednesday evenings, senior and junior hostesses will go to the camp to provide games and dances. The citizens of Northfield will assume their responsibility in making it pleasant for the men of Company 706, M. P., during their stay here.

Book Reading Awards

Center school children, who have received certificates for reading and reporting on five books this fall are: Grade 6 — Albert Clough; grade 7 — Barbara Bolton, Esther Compton, Emma Lavalley, and Anne Livingston; grade 8 — Marilyn Dresser, Mary Fisher, Lorraine Gingsas, Robert Hubbard, and Alva Jones.

Movies At Hostel

The color talkie, "The Headless Horseman", was well received at the Hostel last week. The showing this Saturday will be "Sinbad, the Sailor". Along with the showing of the 15 minute single reel, there will be some local movies to fill up the time.

Next week, on Saturday, December 5th, the showing will be "Elephant Boy." Ten full reels of Rudyard Kipling's famous story will take an hour and forty minutes of screen time to show. Catalogue listings of shows which might be ordered will be shown at the hostel so that people may indicate their preferences.

Welcome Neighbors Trapp Family Singers Select Vermont Home

The well known Trapp family, who have become very prominent in musical circles in New England and who two years ago visited Northfield and appeared before a large audience which crowded the Seminary auditorium, are to locate for permanent residence under the shadow of Mount Mansfield, near the town of Stowe in Vermont. Aside from establishing their home there, they hope to create a music centre there and to foster the development of music in rural communities. They have purchased about 600 acres and will immediately begin the building of their home in the Tyrolean pattern, barns to accommodate the farm undertaking and a guest house to accommodate about 60 persons.

Dr. Franz Wasner, who has so successfully conducted their popular concerts, will have charge of the undertaking. The farm is located two miles off the main highway but readily accessible. It includes a stream and a large pond.

All members of the Trapp family are musicians and vocalists, but they are also artisans, each being capable of performing some special vocation. The Baron and Baroness von Trapp were former residents of Austria and with their family came to America to find a freedom in their lives and living. Their ability and performances in concert were recognized in Europe by Americans, who had seen and heard them and it was they who gave them the needed assistance in fleeing from their native land. Their property there was left behind and their arrival in America was marked by little money but a concert tour ahead. They won favor wherever they appeared and succeeded in crowning their efforts. They found a haven or home in Pennsylvania but now have decided to cast their lot as permanent New Englanders. They like America and Americans have given them a most cordial welcome.

The family hope to visit rural communities and bring music and its development back to the home. Let's hope that some cooperation will be forthcoming to have them again visit Northfield and present an evening's concert.

The Unitarian Church

The morning worship next Sunday morning will be at 10:45 o'clock with sermon by Rev. S. L. Elberfeld of the Unitarian Church of Warwick, on "The Will of God." Rev. Arthur Heeb, minister, Mrs. L. P. Goodspeed, organist and choir leader. All invited to this service. The church school will meet at 10 o'clock. The meeting topic, "Prepare the Heart for Christmas."

On Friday evening at 7:30 the class in social expression and dancing invite the adults of the church and friends to a costume party, where each person will wear something typical of New England. Violin music and entertainment offered.

Mr. Heeb will preach in the Unitarian Church at Warwick on Sunday evening in exchange with Mr. Elberfeld.

Sixteen young men in the service from the First Parish, Northfield Unitarian Church, received the booklet, "Think on These Things" from the parish. Part of the inscription reads "May these brief words of light and faith unite us in a destiny of service and freedom." Correspondence with the young men is carried on as possible.

Fortnightly Meeting

Gilbert C. Rich, librarian at the Greenfield Library, spoke at the Fortnightly last Friday afternoon. Speaking on "Books and Readers", he told of the popularity of the library in wartime for reference and study as well as for pastime reading. Libraries today are busier than ever. Commenting on several recent books, Mr. Rich gave a brief review of "Last Train from Berlin" by Howard K. Smith.

The musical part of the program was furnished by Miss Jean Domin, student soloist at the Northfield Seminary, and Miss Durick of the music department faculty.

The tea committee was Mrs. Bertha Leach, Mrs. Malcolm Billings and Mrs. Charles Gilbert.

On December 4 the Ways and Means Committee will again sell the attractive gift wrappings.

THE WELL KNOWN TRAPP FAMILY, who visited Northfield, September 26, 1941, and gave an evening's concert to a capacity house in the Auditorium on the Seminary campus, which delighted all and was much appreciated. They are native Austrians who fled from their homeland and will become Americans with us, with a home in Vermont.

The Christmas Seals Used Again This Year Will Be Sent Out Soon

The Christmas Seals for 1942 are ready for distribution and circulation. They are being sent out now through the mails to residents and are being placed on sale in all public places. Governor Saltonstall has inaugurated the campaign in this state and urges all to buy and use them in order to support the work of the Massachusetts Tuberculosis League, Inc., and its 27 voluntary associations in their effort to combat the dreaded disease. Newspapers, including the Press, will give the necessary publicity and our people will be fully informed. In Northfield the local campaign will be handled by Mrs. F. Earl Lilly. The quota for the county is $5,800, and the sales will be handled by the Franklin County Public Health Association.

Recipients of the stamps are urged to make a prompt response so that a complete report can be made of the sale in this territory. Governor Saltonstall in his proclamation has this to say regarding the sale of the Christmas Seal:

"It is a matter of medical observation that tuberculosis tends to increase in wartime, although the increase may be prevented by use of known procedures. At this time of crisis, when more hours of work by men and women are urgently needed in winning the war, it is a plain patriotic duty to co-operate with the tuberculosis associations in their work in preventive tuberculosis education, case finding, maintenance of morale of patients and the training and placing in industry and other lines of persons convalescent from tuberculosis."

Mrs. Nellie Haley Dies

Mrs. Nellie Mabel Haley died at her home on Warwick avenue last week Thursday, at the age of 65 years, after a long illness which had kept her confined to the house for several years. She was born in Norwich, Conn., and came to Northfield for residence about 18 years ago. Although an invalid she was interested in all local affairs and endeavored to do many kindnesses to friends and quite recently helped in the making of garments for war use. She is survived by her husband, Walter B. Haley of West Springfield, a son Byron, who is in the service, now located in Illinois, and one daughter, Mrs. Gladys Carpenter of Springfield, also four grandchildren. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at Kidders funeral parlors with Rev. Arthur Heeb officiating. Burial was on Monday in the cemetery family plot in Springfield.

Property Transfers

The following transfers have recently been recorded at the Registry in Greenfield:

Isabelle C. Thompson and Margaret T. Davis to Luman A. Barber, land near Pentecost road and land of the Northfield schools.

Town of Northfield to Charles M. and Julia M. Repeta, land on the east side of Main street near Pierce property.

Estate of George T. Thompson to Ethel K. Thompson, real estate on the west side of Main street.

Northfield Camp Off The Warwick Road Used By New Company

Many stories of the occupancy of the old C. C. C. camp off the Warwick Road by soldiers for training purposes in the past seemed to have been all "pipe dreams" and the Press did not publish them on mere hearsay, as facts. A company of soldiers, however, did come to the camp and Northfield endeavored to make it pleasant for them during their stay. Furniture, books, games, magazines and entertainment were provided for them but they "has went", taking with them everything furnished except the piano. Now a new group has arrived of 150 men and 11 officers, known as the 706th M. P. Battalion with a chaplain, the Rev. L. B. Henry. The group forms a headquarters assignment in this district. The Council of Social Agencies of Greenfield have taken over the responsibility of providing recreational activities at the camp and will welcome cooperation from any other source. The arrangement was worked out with the chaplain. The Y. M. C. A., the Salvation Army and the Red Cross are in the endeavor.

Going To Newport With Naval Hospital

Mrs. Ethel G. Hopkins, formerly of this town, who has been with the Red Cross hospital station for a long time at Fort Devens to conduct entertainment for the soldier patients, will go to the Naval Hospital at Newport, R. I., to conduct a similar work on December first. Miss Virginia Powell, who has acted as her secretary, will become secretary to Miss Bacon who is at the head of the work at Devens. Mrs. E. M. Powell and A. P. Fitt journeyed to Devens on Tuesday and were guests at the presentation of Irving Berlin's, "This Is the Army", of Mrs. Hopkins.

Burning Leaves Wasteful

The burning of leaves is wasteful, particularly now when all plantfood materials should be conserved. There also is a fire hazard, well recognized by many communities which have laws to prevent this practice. Even where carefully watched, a sudden gust of wind may put the fire out of control and a serious blaze result. Too valuable to waste, leaf-mold piled in an out-of-the-way corner of the garden will rot down to form humus, which will come in handy for improving garden beds or, mixed with sand and soil, give an ideal composition for starting seeds indoors.

Visits Friends Here

Mrs. Ethel G. Beatty, who recently spent a few days visiting friends here, has returned to her home in Clayton, Missouri, where her husband, Vernon R. Beatty, is field engineer for the Greenfield Tap and Die, covering the St. Louis and Kansas City territory. Mrs. Beatty was associated with the Northfield Seminary Alumnae office before leaving Northfield in 1940. This was her first visit here in two years.

Bishop Lawrence Here Service At Seminary Douglass At Hermon

The Rt. Rev. W. Appleton Lawrence, Bishop of the Diocese of Western Massachusetts, returns to Northfield this Sunday as the guest speaker at Northfield Seminary at the 11 o'clock service in Sage Chapel and at vespers at 5 p. m. At Mount Hermon, Gaylord Douglass, who has recently been appointed director of Alumni activities, will preach at the morning service in Memorial Chapel at 10:30, and will conduct a forum in Camp Hall at 7 p. m., which will take place at the usual vespers service. Mr. Douglass will also speak at Monday morning Chapel at Northfield Seminary.

'Twas Freezing Rain

Tuesday brought another bad spell of weather which produced results many compelled to be out on the highways, will not forget. With the thermometer much below freezing and with a steady rain which froze, the landscape was covered with ice and the trees lowered their limbs with the weight. The roadways were icy and only those compelled to use their cars did so. From all parts of the county came stories of mishaps and damaged fenders, but of no serious injuries. Everywhere on the hilly portions of the highway, cars crept along and many were stalled until the sandmen came along and afforded relief. The Gill and the Factory Hollow roads reports say were almost impossible for travel. The situation was eased everywhere toward noon.

Thanksgiving Baskets

There was very little demand for Thanksgiving baskets this year to relieve relief and the needs of the poor, but a few cases were discovered where assistance might be appreciated and from all accounts these needs were supplied. In a brief survey, however, it was found that some children and the aged could be helped in the way of warm garments. There did exist some illness among our people and several leading a lonely existence. Thanksgiving cheer was given to all where such cheer was needed and the generosity of the Seminary students, the consideration of the Alliance of the Unitarian Church, the Salvation Army and others met quite fully the situation. In South Vernon and West Northfield, the Loyal Workers made friendly calls for cheer.

Meet The Assessors

For some time past the Board of Assessors have been holding their sessions at the Town Hall on Friday evenings, but effective immediately the board announces that a change will be made and hereafter they will meet in the Selectmen's rooms on the first Tuesday evening of each month at 7:30 o'clock.

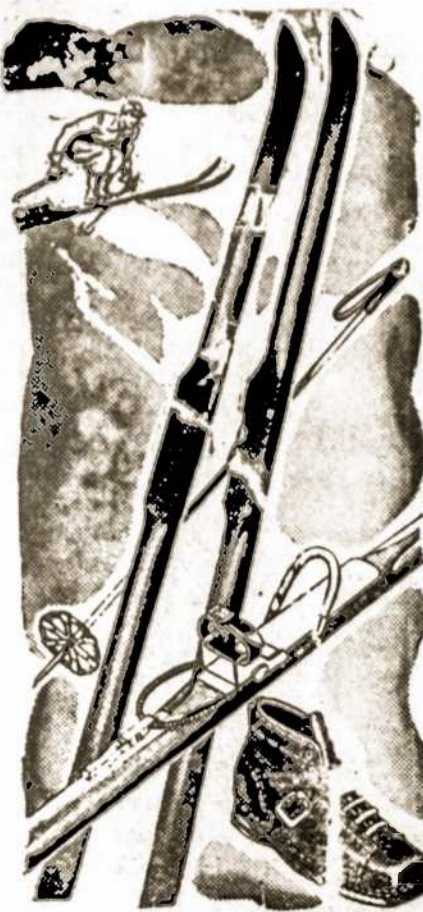

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Howard Skinner of this town, Thursday, November 19 at the Farren Memorial Hospital; granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse H. Skinner and of Mr. and Mrs. John Jurkowski of Northfield.

TOWN TOPICS

Luckey O. Clapp, chairman of the local salvage committee, urges the continued saving of tin cans until such a time when a collection is ordered about the town. Don't forget your old silk stockings, also other articles of silk and rayon are needed and the boxes yet remain in various places to make the deposits.

The local Fish and Game Association held a meeting and beano game last Monday evening at the Town Hall. Nearly a hundred persons were present and turkeys were given away as prizes. Those winning the door prizes were Gordon Buffum and Miss Katherine Johnson.

Information has just been received of the marriage recently of Vincent William Barnes, formerly of this town, to Mrs. Thelma Adams at San Jose, California. Mr. Barnes is chief technician in the laboratory of San Jose County Hospital. He is a nephew of Mrs. Louise Barnes LaBella of Northfield.

The home and community service committee of the Northfield Grange will hold a public card party at the Grange Hall next Tuesday evening.

Last Saturday evening at Grange Hall the members of the Grange tendered a reception and party to Past Master and Mrs. Clayton Miller, now residing in Greenfield, in honor of their 22nd wedding anniversary. A supper was served and dancing followed.

The estate of the late William B. Zabko of the Farms who was drowned in the river in a jump from his boat when his motor exploded last September, has been appraised at $4,422, personal $2,969.87, and farm equity $1,455, by Paul W. Bittner of Greenfield in a return to Probate Court.

The Community Club of District 4 of the Farms announce another evening of social pleasure and dancing on the evening of Dec. 17.

Mr. and Mrs. Abner M. Wade of Athol observed their 50th wedding anniversary Tuesday with a family gathering at the home of a daughter, Mrs. H. L. Wright in Athol. The couple were married in Northfield by the Rev. Mr. Clark, pastor of the Congregational Church, and had frequently visited here at the home of relatives. Mr. Wade is 73 and was born in Stamford, Vt. His wife was Bertha A. Falcom, a native of Shelburne Falls.

Holders of all gasoline rationing books must write their car registration number and state in which registered on the back of all coupons before they can be accepted at the garages. Attend to the matter at home and have them so prepared before offering them. The writing must be in ink.

A report has it that the new Vermont auto registration plates for 1943 will be made from tin, from the cans collected in the state in its various institutions. Some Yankee ingenuity.

The Honor Roll Of Center School

ENGLAND WILL NEVER FORGET

(A Briton's Appreciation)

England will never forget How the women of America Worked for her women and children

Wandering homeless, Innocent victims of Hitler's war.

Men were arguing How much or how little to give, But the women worked.

They worked in every city in America; They made clothes and coverings, Sweaters and blankets, Socks and jackets. Women know that children Cannot wait,

That flying men cannot wait, That freezing sailors cannot wait, And so the American woman worked.

She worked tirelessly, She worked ceaselessly, She is working still.

America may forget; They are a generous people And give generously. But England will never forget.

Here's a Cherry "Special"

By Frances Lee Barton

DON'T use all your cherries for your pies and preserves. Hold out a few cups so that you may give a special treat to the family by serving a cherry upside down cake. It's delicious!

Cherry Upside Down Cake
1 1/2 cups sifted cake flour; 1 1/2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder; 1/4 teaspoon salt; 1/2 cup sugar; 4 tablespoons butter or other shortening; 1 egg, well beaten; 1/2 cup milk; 1 teaspoon vanilla; 4 tablespoons butter; 1/2 cup sugar; 1 1/2 cups pitted and drained red cherries, fresh or canned.

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder, salt, and sugar, and sift together three times. Cream butter thoroughly. Add dry ingredients, egg, milk, and vanilla and stir until all flour is dampened; then beat vigorously 1 minute.

Melt 4 tablespoons butter in 8 x 8 x 2 inch pan or 8 inch skillet, over low flame; add sugar and cook and stir until thoroughly mixed. On this arrange cherries. Turn batter out on contents of pan. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 50 minutes, or until done. Loosen cake from sides of pan with knife or spatula. Turn upside down on dish with cherries on top. Garnish with whipped cream, if desired.

Note: For best results, have all ingredients at room temperature before mixing.

"Why do you insist on keeping a parrot?"

"Because," answered the lonely man. "I like to hear it talk. The parrot is the only creature gifted with the power of speech that is content to repeat just what it hears without trying to make a good story of it."

"Did you get home all right last night, sir?" said the street car conductor to one of his regular passengers.

"Of course. Why do you ask?"

"Well, when you got up and gave the lady your seat last night you were the only two people on the car."

NOW IS THE TIME TO BUY A HOME IN NORTHFIELD

At the present time there are several desirable properties offered for a home in this community at very reasonable prices. The list can not be published or the low cost of its purchase but if you are in the market it will be worth your while to confer with me. After the war is over properties will be in demand and values will go up. Now is the time to investigate

At a local boarding house a guest was sawing away at the sinewy knee joint of a leg of roast chicken.

At last, waving a hand towards a bottle of sauce which stood near the landlady's elbow, he said: "Pass the liniment, please, Mrs. McPherson. This seagull has rheumatism."

Little boy: Half a peck of potatoes with eyes, please.

Grocer: Why with eyes? Mother says they'll have to see us through the rest of the week.

Witness: I am not guilty. My wife can prove a lullaby.

Judge: Alibi, you mean. Witness: Begging your pardon, it was a lullaby; at two o'clock on the morning in question I was walking the floor with the baby.

Kind-hearted Motorist: "Can I give you a lift, sir?"

Professor (absently): "Well, sir, it is extremely kind of you, but I am afraid that at present it would be quite useless. You see, I am living in a bungalow."

The Tendency of The Times

The restrictive buying of consumers goods, and the tendency to restrict more the things you can buy, suggests it is patriotic to save and purchase government war bonds and we must all go to the limit of such purchases. This Bank owns large blocks of government bonds and as your money is deposited with us, you share in these holdings. The saving habit is a necessity. Save where you have got protection for many years.

TOWN TOPICS

At the Fortnightly luncheon at the Northfield Hotel, Miss Dorothy Foster, violinist, and Miss Margaret Heidner, pianist, rendered several beautiful selections. Both young ladies are from the Northfield Seminary.

Our rural postoffice carriers are now authorized to accept applications for War Savings Bonds, and are distributing informative folders. Make your rural carrier happy and help the government by ordering a War Bond from him.

The next Lodge of Instruction of the Masonic fraternity will be held Tuesday evening, December 15th, with the Bay State Lodge of Montague as sponsors at the Masonic hall in Turners Falls.

The East Northfield Postoffice has arranged a special bulletin display of information on positions open with the government. Anyone who might be interested should consult the bulletin as something of personal interest may be found there.

Not much of the happenings and experiences of our local men in the fighting forces reaches home, but at times events are chronicled which have no relation to war activities. It is reported that Lieut. Robert Aylesworth, a summer resident, discovered Ensign "Bob" deVeer of the aviation force on the same ship. It is also said that when Charles E. Leach, Jr., was driving a convey truck in England, he recognized "Bob" Hopkins as he climbed aboard.

The Christmas cards being sold at various places in the town are moving fast and orders are coming in from our summer folks and many friends. An edition of 1000 was printed and when these have been sold, there will simply be no more. The profits go toward our soldier remembrances.

The social evening at District No. 3 last Friday evening by the Community Club was a big success with over 50 persons present. Cards and games were played and refreshments served. A Christmas party is being planned. The Ladies Benevolent Society of the Farms will hold a meeting Wednesday afternoon, December 2, to do sewing and knitting for the Red Cross.

William Stratton, who recently enlisted in the Navy, is at his home here for a 14 day furlough. "Billy" Packard and "Molly" Malbon are being entertained at the home of their grandmother, Mrs. William R. Moody, this week.

Lieut. "Bob" Harvey of the Navy, a summer resident with his parents here, returned to San Francisco on his ship, from whence he phoned his father at Bloomfield, N. J. His wife is staying in San Francisco, and is now with him.

Friends and members of St. James' Episcopal Church of Greenfield, residing in Northfield, have been advised that the annual Christmas sale and cafeteria supper will be held in the parish house on Wednesday afternoon and evening, Dec. 2.

The hunting season began in Vermont last Saturday and will end on the 30th, Sunday excepted.

The small game season in Massachusetts on pheasants, quail, partridge and gray squirrels ended last week end. Hunters were seen in the woodlands but not in any great number.

Members of the local Board of Assessors and Charles F. Slate, Tax Collector, attended the County Assessors' Association meeting at Deerfield last Tuesday when Commissioner Henry F. Long was the conference speaker on matters of taxation.

The county White Hare Association at its recent meeting voted to purchase 200 white hare and liberate them in various localities in the woodlands for the hunting season.

Mrs. C. P. Buffum, writing from Orlando, says that the weather is very delightful in Florida and she is enjoying her stay.

The Christmas vesper service at the Seminary will be held in Sage Chapel on Sunday, December 13, at 5 o'clock.

The Christmas vacation at the Northfield Schools will begin at the Seminary on Dec. 17 and Hermon on Dec. 18.

Lewis O. Harris of the Grey Birch farm of East Deerfield advertised last week in newspapers, including the Press, that he had unusually fine turkeys for sale. The advertisement appeared in the Press last Friday but on Saturday he was sold out. Several Northfield folks failed to get their turkey there this year.

Rev. John H. Park, assistant rector of St. James' Episcopal Church in Greenfield, delivered the sermon at the Thanksgiving service at Mount Hermon Memorial Church on Thanksgiving day morning.

The food sale of the local Health Council held last Saturday in Goodspeed's Attic Outlet in the Webster block was very successful and a goodly sum was realized amounting to $65. The Council extends its appreciation of the patronage.

Mrs. Ernest Parker, who has been ill at her home in the Farms, is reported as very much improved. Her sister, Miss Ruth Towne, has been with her.

William Carr, son of George W. Carr of Winchester road, spent the weekend at his home. He is with the Navy Intelligence service, and located in New York city.

Coffee sales ceased at the stores last Saturday at midnight but under the new rationing plan can be purchased with sugar stamp No. 27 on and after November 29, in limited amount.

Mrs. Mabel Richardson, formerly residing on East street, is now living in Greenfield.

Since compulsory tire registration by motorists ended last Saturday it is now presumed that no person in Northfield has more than five tires permitted for their automobile.

The Montague draft board has placed Tillix Sylvester of Mount Hermon and Arthur Bolton of this town in class 2-A.

Harold Parsons of Northfield Farms, who has been very ill with rheumatic fever, is gradually making a good recovery.

Ernest Parker and Fred S. Merrill of the local Board of Assessors attended the annual meeting of the County Assessors' Association at Deerfield on Tuesday.

Dr. and Mrs. Allen H. Wright are spending the Thanksgiving holiday with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence White, at their home in Boston.

There was a goodly attendance at the dance of the local Guard Company at the Town Hall last Tuesday evening. Music was by Tony Tognari's orchestra. All enjoyed a most pleasant evening and the net receipts were nearly $25.

Two more boxes left Northfield by freight filled with many needed materials for Crossmore school in the mountains of North Carolina. The school reports last year the barter sales of these articles, after remodeling, netted the school a total amount of $7,000. The mountaineers bring their produce and exchange it for clothes.

Raymond C. Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carol H. Miller, who is with the 16th Signal Service Army Regiment at Monmouth, N. J., is now a corporal technician.

OPPORTUNITY

They do me wrong who say I come no more
 When once I knock and fail to find you in;
 For every day I stand outside your door
 And bid you wake, and rise to fight and win.
 —Walter Malone.

IN THE CAST

Another year Fate takes the prompter's box.
 The curtain rises and the play begins.
 What are your lines—and mine?
 Perhaps low comedy—perhaps a tear—
 Perhaps the shadow of some fine romance!
 Perhaps high tragedy—who knows or cares?
 Be content that God retains us in the cast
 And big enough to know—"The play's the thing!"

FOR MORALE

The Young Men's Christian Association is marking this year, its 98th year of morale building efforts. Its founding in London by Sir George Williams, and its establishment in the United States and Canada has been followed by a phenomenal success of its work and in the building up of Christian character and service in the lives of young men.

It has carried on through four wars in which we have been engaged and extended its sphere of usefulness in many foreign lands. The "Y" is world wide in its influence and accomplishments and the lives and living of men everywhere, who have come within its beneficence, are the silent testimonials to its high purpose. Long may it continue as an active force in the development of Christian character.

over two years ago... Nearly two and a half million telephone calls a day are made in the 48 cities and towns of greater Boston... New building permits in 68 cities and towns reported by the Department of Labor and Industries totaled $2,048,458 in October, a drop of 68 per cent. from October a year ago. The only places showing any substantial number of new dwellings were Springfield with 47 new dwelling units, Boston 40, Worcester 37, Quincy 18, Weymouth 15, Braintree 12, Leominster 9, and West Springfield 8... The town of Brookline still has about five miles of wooden sidewalks which abutters have insisted on retaining for their quaint appearance. The first wooden-plank walks there were laid about 1870... Boston has collected a larger proportion of its current taxes this year than in any year at least since 1929. By November 1, "tax day", collections amounted to 81.5 per cent. of the 1942 total due... America's first regularly commissioned warship, the schooner "Hannah", was ordered into patrol duty in Massachusetts Bay, September 2, 1775... The State Planning Board is studying the areas available for war housing in the Springfield district with regard to existing zoning ordinances.

Back Yard Gardener

By G. O. Oleson

I'm between the deep blue sea and that satanic guy, I can't make up my mind whether to pray for more warm weather and thus save fuel oil or whether I should ride along with the song crooners and wish for a white Christmas. Maybe the composer didn't have that in mind, but I think a white Christmas would be a good theme song for home gardeners.

You see it would make a lot easier our task of winter protection for valued plants. But since we can't guarantee a white Christmas just by wishing, we'd better make plans for other types of protection.

I saw by the home town paper that some folks out on the Belchertown road picked two quarts of strawberries on November 11, which reminds me that Bill Thies says strawberry plants should be mulched before the temperature drops much below 20 degrees. If left until the ground freezes real hard, there's apt to be injury to the crown and hence less fruit next year. Old hay or straw is the best sort of material for mulching strawberry beds. I'd make it a point to have these pretty clear for weed seeds. Before using shake out the chaff. Keeping a strawberry bed free of weeds is a hard enough job without adding extra ones through the mulch.

Next spring leave the mulch right on the bed. Don't take it off. It will be a simple case of checking and when the new plants under the mulch begin to turn yellow it's time to shake up that mulch. Shake it up just enough so that the plants can come up through, leaving the mulch there to add humus and to conserve moisture and also to keep the berries from getting mud splattered when it rains.

Then you might make a special point, as I have in the past week or two, to check the ground surface around special plants. A couple of my dwarf apple trees

FLORIDA LIQUID SUNSHINE—TREE-RIPENED FRUIT

We start our 7th shipping season. Since the bloom was very late this year the fruit is later in maturing, but now we expect to be able to ship fine quality fruit. Prices quoted will prevail as long as these products are obtainable at present price levels.

BUSHEL ORANGES or GRAPEFRUIT or MIXTURE send $1.40
HALF BUSHEL ORANGES or GRAPEFRUIT or MIXTURE $ .90

Express charges, which may be paid on arrival of fruit, are same as last year, except an added 10c tax on each shipment (whether half bushel or 9 bushels to same address). N. Y., Mass., Conn., A. I., N. J., Pa., Ohio, Ill., $1.25 per bu. plus 10c tax each shipment. Half Bushel 70c plus 10c tax each shipment. Me., N. H., Vt., $1.35 per bushel, plus 10c tax each shipment. Half bushels 75c plus 10c tax each shipment.

We are offering a limited supply of Orange Blossom Honey at 85c per 5 lb. pail, or 25c per 1 lb. jar, to be packed in baskets of fruit. Again the same thin-shell Dr. Curtis pecans may be scattered among your fruit—not more than 2 lbs. in a basket, at 25c per lb.

Christmas baskets, bushels and halves—orange and grapefruit mixture, with attractive trimmings, will be sent out again this year at above prices. We enclose your name in the basket. We need to receive your orders by Dec. 10 to assure delivery. You will wish to include express charge and tax on these gifts.

Mr. Bigelow has again kindly consented to receive and forward local orders for a lot shipment, thus saving on express.

I AM A BAR OF STEEL!

As a weapon, I'm about as good as a cave-man's club.

But I've got the makings of a semi-automatic rifle in me.

All I need is skilled men, precision machines—and REDDY KILOWATT!

Reddy Kilowatt is my constant guide and companion thru a series of changes in my form and appearance. Reddy supplies the ELECTRIC POWER that cuts me, shapes me, grinds and polishes me—until at last I am no longer just a bar of steel.

I am a semi-automatic rifle—belching bullets as a soldier presses my trigger.

More than half of Reddy Kilowatt's total work-hours (more than 600,000,000 in 1942) are devoted to changing RAW materials into WAR materials.

were standing in depressions where the chickens dusted themselves, but I saw to it that these were filled with dirt so that there will be no chance for water standing and freezing. And the same of course goes for roses. Be sure that the earth is mounded up around the stems in order to drain off any excess water. It's usually better to take soil from somewhere else than it is to try to scrape the soil from near the plant into a mound around the stem.

Of course there are other things which need winter protection. Yet the rugged perennials like chrysanthemums, delphiniums, hollyhocks, etc., seem to get along as well without protection as with it. At least they need very little. In fact, some authorities say that one of the easiest and most satisfactory methods is to dig up a few clumps and put them into a cold frame. Then if your bed freezer, you'll have plants to start again next year. If you have no cold frame, use a bed on the south side of the house where the soil is pretty warm due to the heat which seeps through from the cellar. Or if such a place isn't available, you could put the clumps into boxes or pots and store them in a cool but well-lighted spot.

Of course evergreens may need some attention, particularly those that are apt to become covered with snow which drifts or slides off the roof of those that are planted in spots exposed to wind and sun.
